

When children pray together it is as though they are giving the world a great big hug.
Colour in the children and the world.

Write your own prayer for children around the world here:

---

---

---

---